

Fashion Revue is a combination of an oral presentation, modeling of the garment and response to questions from the judges. Contestants will meet for a personal interview with the judges. During the interview, the contestants will be judged on:

- Their oral presentation skills
- The content of their oral presentation
- The appearance of outfit/garment
- Questions from the judges

The contestants will have the opportunity to provide an oral presentation in front of the judges. The presentation should be in the following format:

- a) Name
- b) One- two-minute presentation about their 4-H Clothing and Textiles project. This oral presentation can include information about the garment being modeled, learning experiences or activities within the clothing and textiles project, future project/personal plans, and any other information related to their 4-H career.

Contest Rules

Outfits/Garments can be entered into the constructed or purchased category. All outfits/garments will be judged against each other within the category.

- a) Constructed – All garments in the ensemble must be constructed (exception: Full-length coat may be worn over a ready-to-wear garment.) construction category also includes garments that have been modified from a previously used material. These materials can be a ready-made garment. The new garment must show at least 30% change in the construction/design.
- b) Purchased – All garments in the ensemble are purchased. The purchased category also includes upcycling or embellishing that includes little or no sewing to a purchased item. This would include the applying decorations by gluing, fusing or paint to a purchased item.

Judging

20% - oral presentation skills
20% - content of oral presentation
25% - appearance of garment
15% - responses to judge's questions
20% - modeling

4-H Thrive

Positive Youth Development

Developing Competence

Adults create environments where youth can develop competence in their chosen project area.

Building Confidence

Youth build confidence as they learn to think for themselves, build mastery, and are recognized for their efforts.

Nurturing Caring

Adults nurture a caring environment where mutual trust between youth and adults is established. Caring relationships with adults are key to resilient youth.

Finding Connection

Youth build solid connections which are critical to their well-being.

Forming Character

Create a community where youth play an active role in developing their character.

Determining Contribution

Youth actively contribute to their clubs and communities.

Mississippi State University is an equal opportunity institution.